Reflections

Shoes in Church

I showered and shaved..... I adjusted my tie.
I got there and sat..... In a pew just in time.

Bowing my head in prayer..... As I closed my eyes.
I saw the shoe of the man next to me..... Touching my own. I sighed.
With plenty of room on either side..... I thought, 'Why must our soles touch?'
It bothered me, his shoe touching mine..... But it didn't bother him much.

A prayer began: 'Our Father'..... I thought, 'This man with the shoes, has no pride.
They're dusty, worn, and scratched. Even worse, there are holes on the side!'
Thank You for blessings,' the prayer went on.
The shoe man said..... A quiet 'Amen.'
I tried to focus on the prayer..... But my thoughts were on his shoes again.
Aren't we supposed to look our best. When walking through that door?
Well, this certainly isn't it, I thought, glancing toward the floor.
Then the prayer was ended..... And the songs of praise began.

The shoe man was certainly loud..... Sounding proud as he sang.
His voice lifted the rafters..... His hands were raised high.
The Lord could surely hear..... The shoe man's voice from the sky.

It was time for the offering..... And what I threw in was steep.
I watched as the shoe man reached.... Into his pockets so deep.
I saw what was pulled out..... What the shoe man put in.
Then I heard a soft "clink" as when silver hits tin.

The sermon really bored me..... To tears, and that's no lie.
It was the same for the shoe man... For tears fell from his eyes.

At the end of the service..... As is the custom here.
We must greet new visitors..... And show them all good cheer.
But I felt moved somehow..... And wanted to meet the shoe man.

So, after the closing prayer..... I reached over and shook his hand.

He was old and his skin was dark..... And his hair was truly a mess.
But I thanked him for coming..... For being our guest.

He said, 'My name's Charlie..... I'm glad to meet you, my friend.'
There were tears in his eyes..... But he had a large, wide grin.
Let me explain, he said..... Wiping tears from his eyes.
I've been coming here for months..... And you're the first to say "Hi."

I know that my appearance.....Is not like all the rest.
But I really do try.....To always look my best.
I always clean and polish my shoes...Before my very long walk.
But by the time I get here.....They're dirty and dusty, like chalk.

My heart filled with pain..... And I swallowed to hide my tears.
As he continued to apologize..... For daring to sit so near.
He said, When I get here..... I know I must look a sight.
But I thought if I could touch you..... Then, maybe our souls might unite.

I was silent for a moment..... Knowing whatever was said.
Would pale in comparison.... I spoke from my heart, not my head.
Oh, you've touched me, I said.....And taught me, in part.
That the best of any man.....Is what is found in his heart.
The rest, I thought, ..... This shoe man will never know.
Like just how thankful I really am.... That his dirty old shoe touched my soul.
You are special to me and you have made a difference in my life.

PASTORS NOTES:

At this time we are planning a Community Hymn Sing on September 17th, either at 4PM or at 7PM. Most of the Hymn Sing will be from our wonderful hymnal. I expect many people will have hymns that they would like to have sung. I expect there will be a few preselected hymns as well. We will also use music videos which will have the lyrics projected on the screen. I am hoping to have my grandson Andy bring his violin for a couple of songs. Also, I am hoping to invite a couple of soloists with wonderful voices from Grace Church. We'll see.

Starting on September 24th I will begin a preaching series on a number of topics which need to be understood Biblically and lived out Biblically. The topics are: The Creation, Biblical Marriage, the Challenge of Child Sacrifice, The Bible and the Homosexual, and the Permanent Nature of Chromosomes (transgender issues). There will be 2 guiding teachings of Jesus: "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23) and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31). Perhaps friends or relatives could be invited for any or all of these messages.

St John's and other Christian churches are being challenged by an increasingly secular, and sometimes aggressive, anti-God and anti-Christian culture. Our task is not just to say "No"! As others have said, "It is not what we are against, it is what we are for!" WE ARE FOR the unadorned Gospel of Jesus Christ, our Lord!

Many people expect that St John's will welcome a new pastor sometime during the new Church Year, maybe earlier, maybe later. The pastor will change at some point, but the call of Christ will not change. The need for the Gospel of Jesus Christ in America is greater now than at any time in the last 100 years. Our task is to proclaim and pursue Jesus' teachings and do it with both humility and grace.

Come, let us all claim the future Christ has for us,

Pastor Marchant

Update from the Pastor Search Committee

Dear St. John’s family,

We appreciate your support and prayers. We have filled out our church information form and now have posted the pastoral position online. Celine has done a great job getting our info out there and has put it on nine seminary sites. I put it on two other sites.

We looked at our constitution and have compiled questions to ask our upcoming applicants and appreciated any input or questions you would like asked.

We asked the council to look and approve the baptism policy to include both infant and believers' baptism with sprinkling or full immersion which the council said yes to. We have received 7 applications and have let 5 go.

We are doing two more follow-up and are setting up two interview. We are very blessed to have a great church family and we are working very hard to be prepared for any candidate the Lord presents to us. Please again keep us in your prayers and thank you for your patience and support.

Julie Karl

Common Cup Information

It's that time of year again... time to think Back-to-School. Common Cup Ministry is accepting donations of school supplies. There is a collection box by the Common Cup Corner table now through Aug 6. St. John's Church has been challenged specifically to collect backpacks and #2 highlighters, but there is a longer list of needed items at the CCC table if you'd prefer to donate something else. Cash donations are appreciated as well.

Common Cup will be distributing school supplies on August 16th (Hutchinson) and August 17th (Glencoe). Free school supplies are open to all students who live in or attend schools in McLeod County. If you know of anyone in need of supplies, they may register at the CCM office: 105 2nd Ave SW in Hutchinson, by phone at 320-587-2213 or website at: www.common-cup.org. Deadline is 8/4/23

The next warm coat distribution will be coming up late September or early October. We already collected coats earlier this spring, so there won't be a formal collection this fall. But if you have any warm winter coats/boots/snowpants, get them to Celine Swift and she will get them delivered.

* Questions about anything above? Contact Celine Swift

Sunday School Happenings

Dates to Remember:

July 30-August 2- Vacation Bible School
August 26- KIDZ Jam- drop off event
September 10- Sunday school starts 9:15 a.m.
September 24- VBS slideshow and kids sing

Our last day of Sunday School was a mission to introduce our Vacation Bible School theme: STELLAR- Shine Jesus' Light! We used flashlights and blacklight to emphasize certain bible verses... Psalm 147:4, Matthew 5:16, and John 8:12. Even in dark times, Jesus is with us and God has decided the number of stars and calls each one by name. The kids' next mission was to go through an obstacle course and then we enjoyed a snack.

Vacation Bible School ran from Sunday, July 30 through Wednesday, August 2. Setting up and decorating was completed with lots of busy hands, creativity and motivation! A thank you goes out to all who participated at the work night and hauled decorations to the church. There are so many people to thank for putting this together! Jesus' Light is Shining in all of you!

NEW and Coming Soon... KIDZ Jam- drop your children off on Saturday, August 26 for games, crafts, food and more! Sign up at church or go to the church website to register soon! Space is limit.
